Index to volume XXXIII of the Navy Civil Engineer magazine

Author	Article	Page
Winter 1994 (Vol. XXXIII, No. 1)
CAPT Joseph C. Dean, CEC, USN	The challenges and rewards of joint duty for the CEC officer	4
LCDR Robert S. Meyer, CEC, USNR	Planning for Bosnia: A new role for military engineers?	6
CDR Will Boudra, CEC, USN	Operation Restore Hope: The joint experience	9
CDR William L. Nelson, CEC, USN	The CEC and joint duty	12
Donald S. Allen, Mary T. Anderson and Sandra A. Berry	NAVFAC: The Navy's caretaker	13
CAPT John S. Ahl, CEC, USN	Recipe for a public works center	17
CDR Andrew D. Brunhart, CEC, USN	PWC Jacksonville: The genesis of a journey	19
CWO2 Joseph A. Slovensky, CEC, USN	CECOS graduates Basic Class number 200	21
Kathleen Sampson	EFA Chesapeake restores Vice President's house	26
CDR Daniel L. Grigsby, CEC, USN	Northern Viking 93: The Seabees were there!	28
Summer 1994 No. XXXIII, No. 2
CAPT Palmer W. Roberts, CEC, USN (Ret)	D-Day: The Seabees were there!	3
JOC J. Wandres, USNR-R	The 108th Seabee Battalion: Can do, and did do, on D-Day	9
LT Scott K. Higgins, CEC, USN, P.E.	Trenchless excavation technologies: Consider the possibilities	12
George F. Little and Kenneth Megill, Ph.D.	Travel the information super highway with the PWC Norfolk Information Resources Center	16
Michael M. Hunter, P.E.; CDR D. Scott Bianchi, P.E., CEC, USN; Michael M. Blank, Ph.D., P.E.; and Otto F. Schick	The long road to metrication	18
David J. Skar, P.E.	How does NAVFAC measure up in metric conversion?	20
Charles R. Senerius, John Mintz, Vickie Marino and Arthur McElroy	Steam plant moves to its new home at PWC Norfolk	21
LCDR Robert P. Walden, CEC, USN	Excuse me sir, what are you?	24